

EAST BAY GOLF COURSE

Code of Conduct

The Golf Professional, Course Superintendent and their staff, as well as Golf Course Marshals shall serve as course officials. These officials shall enforce and have the ability to interpret all course rules and regulations and the Code of Conduct pertaining to East Bay Golf Course.

Golf Play

The following "Code of Conduct" has been adopted by the Provo City Parks & Recreation Department and the East Bay Golf Course. These rules of conduct will be strictly enforced before, during and after any round of golf is played and while on the golf course premises. It is the player's and any patron's responsibility to know and adhere to these rules.

1. No individual shall: At any time lay a hand upon, shove, strike, threaten or attack any player, spectator or golf course official.
2. No individual shall: Use abusive or profane language towards other players, spectators, or officials of the golf course, nor engage in any other behavior that is unsportsmanlike or detrimental to the normal and orderly operation of the golf course.
3. No individual shall: Cause any physical damage to the golf course, course equipment, rental equipment, clubhouse, practice facilities or any other amenity of East Bay Golf Course.
4. No individual shall: Use illegal drugs or alcohol at East Bay Golf Course, including the clubhouse and parking areas. Any individual who in the opinion of an official of the golf course appears to have been drinking or taking illegal drugs, shall be ejected from the premises.
5. All players must be registered at the front desk of the Golf Shop before playing any part of the golf course.
6. No more than four players may play together in the same group unless specific permission has been given by a golf course official.
7. All players will play from between the appropriate tee markers. Players, when asked by a golf course agent to play from tee markers appropriate for their skill level, must do so or leave the golf course.
8. Holes must be played in proper sequence and a golfer in the wrong fairway must give way to players playing that hole.
9. Due to their skill level and/or golfing experience, players or groups of players that are unable to play at a reasonable pace of play on the championship course may be asked to move to the executive or shorter course. When so asked, they must do so or leave the golf course.
10. Each player must have their own bag and set of clubs.
11. It is the responsibility of each player to replace divots, rake and smooth sand bunkers and repair their ball marks on the greens.
12. Singles and/or twosomes do not have the right-of-way on the golf course.

13. Spectators may be allowed at the discretion of the Golf Professional or designated golf officials.
14. Children (5 years of age or younger) must be supervised and accompanied by an adult at all times. When playing the
15. Championship Course, if you have a child 5 years of age or younger, a golf cart is required. Children 3 years of age or under and strollers are not allowed on the golf course or short course at any time.
16. Provo City, East Bay Golf Inc. and all their employees assume no responsibility or liability for any personal injury or theft or damage to personal property on the golf course or surrounding Provo City property. Individuals will be held responsible for any and all damages they cause to the golf course, equipment and adjacent properties bordering the golf course including any damage caused on Interstate 15 or surrounding road ways and may be suspended.

Motorized Carts

Players are required to follow all directional signs when operating golf carts and use cart paths as directed. Golf carts are to stay out of roped-off areas at all times no matter the circumstances. Carts are not to be driven on or near teeing areas and they must stay at least 30 feet from the edge of all greens.

Suspensions and or Loss of Playing Privileges

1. First warning or violation: The player may be placed on notice immediately and/or possibly removed from the golf course. Based on the severity of the violation or activity, player or players may be suspended from golf course permanently. No refunds will be issued (including Season Passes, Range Tickets or Punch Tickets) to suspended player.
2. Second warning or violation: The player will be placed on notice and/or possibly removed from the golf course for a minimum of one (1) week. Based on the severity of the violation or activity, player or players may be suspended from golf course permanently. No refunds will be issued (including Season Passes, Range Tickets or Punch Tickets) to suspended player.
3. Third warning or violation: The player will be placed on notice and/or possibly removed from the golf course for a minimum of one (1) month. Based on the severity of the violation or activity, player or players may be suspended from golf course permanently. No refunds will be issued (including Season Passes, Range Tickets or Punch Tickets) to suspended player.
4. Any subsequent violation: the player will be suspended from the golf course for one year from the date of the notice. Based on the severity of the violation or activity, player or players may be suspended from golf course permanently. No refunds will be issued (including Season Passes, Range Tickets or Punch Tickets) to suspended player.

Any player that has been found to be involved in especially egregious acts including physical assaults on others or damage to course facilities may be suspended from the golf course for several years or permanently, depending on the severity of the case. Anyone who has been previously charged with criminal activity on the course may be refused future service if golf course officials reasonably believe them to be a threat to good order and discipline on the course or a danger to the safety of other golfers.

Final Decision and Authority

1. Conduct Review Board: A review board consisting of the Director of Parks and Recreation, Assistant Director of Parks and Recreation, Golf Professional, Course Superintendent and a representative from Provo City shall review all suspensions.
2. Any appeals, following the Conduct Review Boards' recommendation, must be submitted within 14 days to the Provo City Chief Administrative Officer (CAO). The CAO or Mayor will review the case and the decision of the Conduct Review Board. The CAO or Mayor's decision shall be final.

EAST BAY GOLF COURSE General Facility Policies

The following activities are prohibited on all golf course grounds or facilities except as permitted by Provo City through authorized course officials:

1. Storage of private or personal property.
2. Solicitation of any kind.
3. Theft of public or personal property.
4. Circulation or posting of handbills, petitions, advertising matter, promotional material and literature.
5. Selling of goods, wares or merchandise except by licensed concessionaire
6. Illegal or unlicensed possession or discharge of any firearms, air gun, slingshot or fireworks of any kind.
7. Fishing in lakes, ponds or other waterways. Fishing is allowed to the South of the golf course (See map below)

12. Overnight parking in the parking lot is not allowed unless authorized by Provo City, the Golf Professional or Golf Course Superintendent.
13. Drones are prohibited on the golf course premise unless authorized by a Provo City representative, the Golf Professional or Golf Course Superintendent.

Bird Watching

Bird watching is welcomed in designated areas. For the safety of golfers and watchers, bird watching is prohibited on the golf course when the golf course is open for play. Permission may be granted by a golf course official during the "winter/off season." During the season, birders may use the new parking lot south of the golf course at the newly revitalized, East Bay Bird Park. (See map below)

Hunting

Hunting or the discharge of any weapon is prohibited on the East Bay Golf Course and in the East Bay Bird Park. This includes bows, crossbows and fishing bows.
